EAST HIGH SCHOOL
YOUNGSTOWN, OHIO

HISTORY OF EAST

With the opening of East in 1926, a dream came true to the late J. W. Smith, Lincoln Junior High principal, who became East's first principal. Upon his retirement in 1948, he was succeeded by E. E. Fell, his assistant.

Burton Honey, '31 local graduate who made good, took over his duties following the retirement of E. E. Fell in 1956.

With the enrollment rising, a new addition was needed. In 1954, new classrooms, shops, cafeteria, gym and lockerooms were added. In 1958, a blacktop playground with basketball, shuffleboard, tennis courts, tether ball, picnic tables and benches to give students supervised recreation was installed.

East, now a junior and senior high school, has an enrollment of 1700 and a faculty of 81, compared to the 1000 students and 60 faculty members in 1926.

CLASS OF 1959

After carefully studying the ballot issued by the song, color and flower committee, the senior class chose "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes", white and gold, red roses, and as their theme, "A Night to Remember".

Thanks For The Memories

sered summer grass passing to the red and gold beauty of autumn . . .
husky young men . . .
beautiful young girls . . .
in sporty homecoming frocks—
in flowing gowns,
swirl by in a montage of firey reds, clean pure whites, and pass also to the tender alive smell of spring and graduation.

a year has come and gone . . .
we have grown older and perhaps wiser but we must pass too from the carefree loves of youth to the burdens of mature responsibilities.

and, in the autumn of our lives—
for, life too must pass,
we shall remember—
happiness and sorrow,
joy and disappointment,
but, above all, we SHALL remember, and in doing so, be able to say sincerely—thanks . . . thanks for the memory.

DEDICATION

We, the class of 1959, dedicate our Janus to Edward Robins Smith, graduate of Ohio Northern University. Ed served as head of the commercial department for almost thirty years, and prior to his retirement, was East's only golf coach.

"E. R.", as he is affectionately called, taught at Lincoln Junior High before coming to East in 1926, when the school opened. In the past years, he always offered a helping hand in school activities and gladly gave his wise words of advice when asked.

In 1952, Coach Smith and his team traveled to Columbus and won the first state championship for East in any sport.

With respect and admiration, we, the seniors of East High extend to E. R. Smith, best wishes in the years to come.

PRINCIPAL BURTON HONEY

Burt Honey

For twelve years you, the class of '59 have surmounted many obstacles in your quest for knowledge and graduation from high school.

Our democratic form of government, in giving you the opportunity to pursue these goals, holds that the greatest development of the individual represents the highest good for the individual and for the nation.

Your continual effort for mature development will depend upon your use of the experiences gained through your years of schooling. May you find happiness, success, and satisfaction in your future life's work.

J. W. Panik

Assistant Principal
JOHN PANIK

In preparing yourself to meet and successfully solve the problems of everyday living, we hope you have learned to think, learned to live together in our society, and have become aware of the need for hard work if our nation and society are to survive.

We hope we have been successful in building character and instilling the ideals and the faith to know what is right.

Your success and happiness are our primary concern as you leave East High School.

John Hunter

As June, 1959 becomes a reality, a new challenge must be met by each of you who are leaving us. Whether it be in the collegiate field or in the career you have chosen, it means entering into adult responsibility.

I sincerely hope that we have helped to prepare you for this important task. Good luck graduating seniors, and may all of the best be yours.

JOHN HUNTER, JR.
Junior High Principal

J. P. Griffith, Dick Guerrieri

J. P. GRIFFITH

J. P. Griffith was never hard to find, and was always patiently willing to give advice and guidance when you needed it. J. P. was also active in many other affairs such as group testing, arranging scholarships for seniors, and teaching commercial law one period a day.

MISS HIGLEY

Serving in the dual capacity of child care teacher and dean of girls, Miss Ruth Higley provided guidance and friendly advice for a large part of the student body.

Throughout the year, seniors and underclassmen sought her help in career choices, college planning, and curriculum adjustments.

Ruth Higley

John Malusso

JOHN MALUSSO

Helping to correct, and in some cases completely erasing speech and hearing difficulties, has been the task of John Maluso for the past five years.

Mr. Maluso divides his time among the six city high schools, giving East students his help on Mondays and Fridays.

OFFICE STAFF

What would it be like without an office staff? Imagine having no record of your grades, no transcripts to offer future employees to examine. Our office staff is in charge of all such matters concerning attendance records, taking care of the book store, and running both the mimeograph and ditto machines.

NEWS HOUNDS AT ATHENS AND KENT

Joining in college life for one week, eight students from Echo and Janus staffs journeyed to Athens to attend classes at Ohio University last June.

The week was spent in conferences and discussion groups about themes, layouts, write-ups and design, and in learning how to make more interesting annuals and newspapers.

Picnics, dances, swimming, and dormitory living gave students a taste of the social side of campus life.

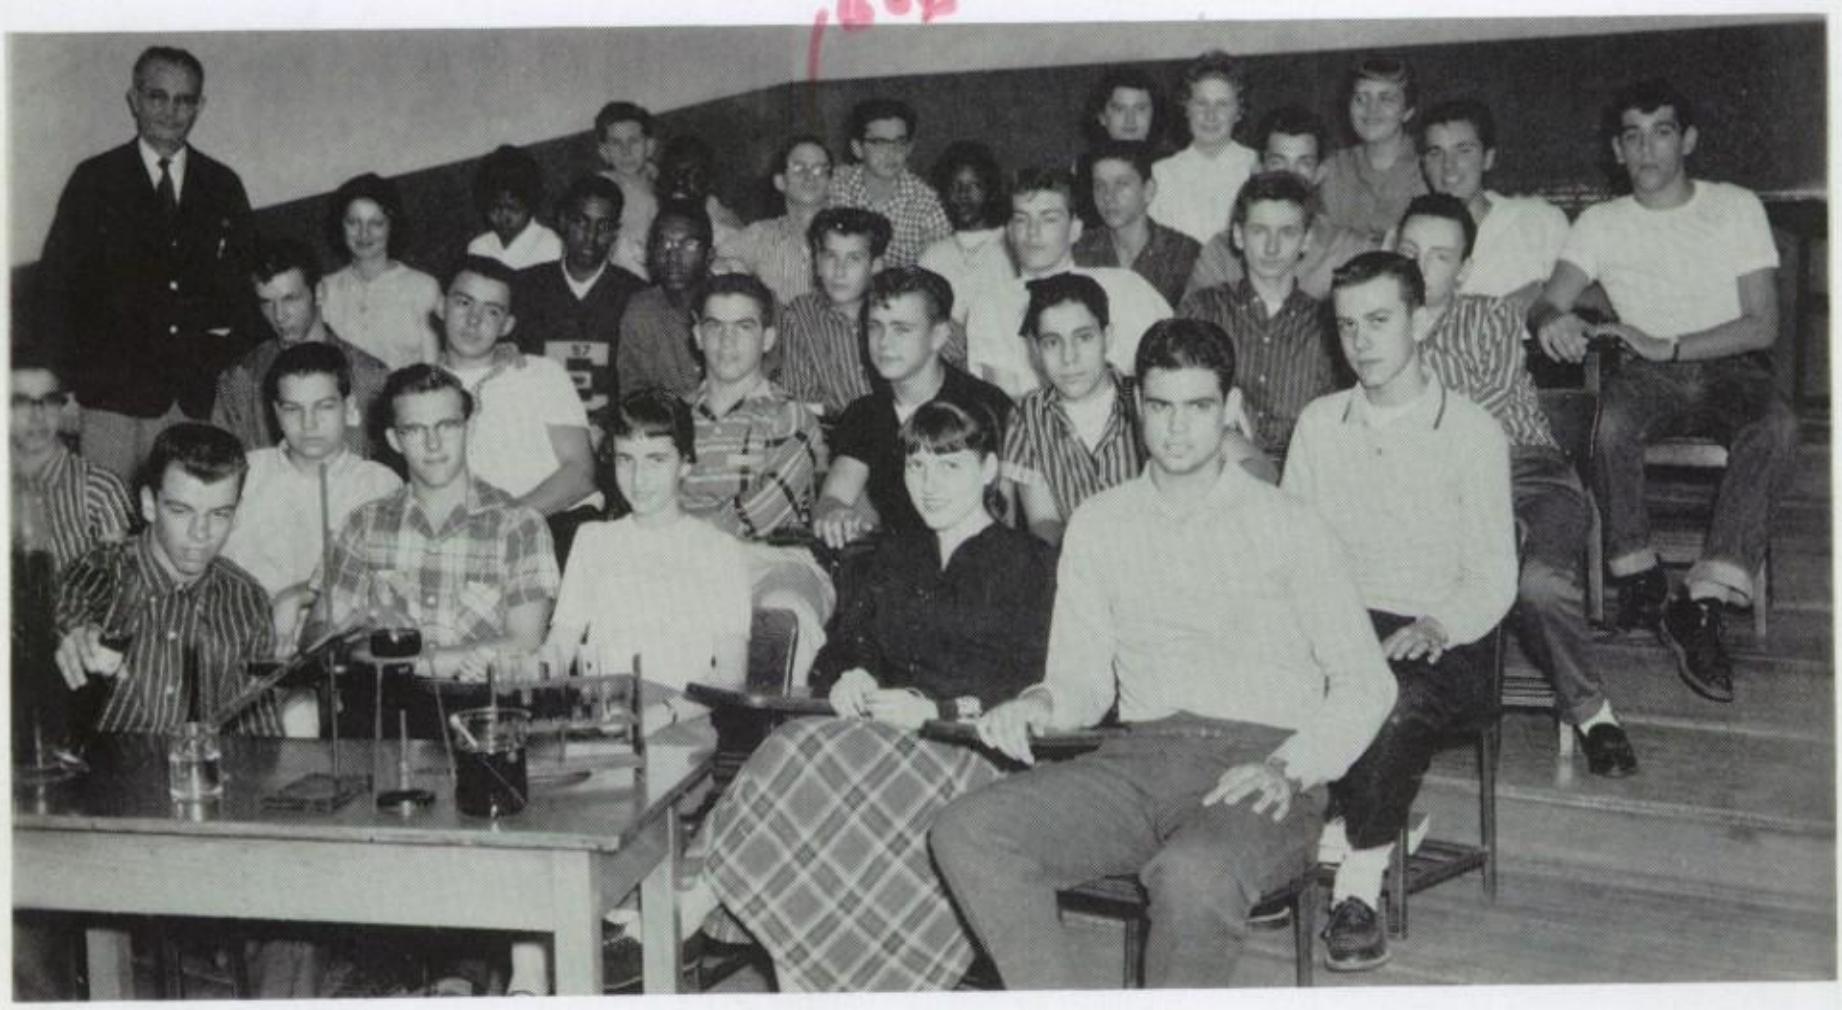
FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

Future Teachers of America Club was organized by students interested in teaching as a career. Members acted as student teachers when needed, graded papers, and visited other schools to observe techniques used by various teachers.

Officers were: Delores Gaydos, president; Nancy Sheppard, vice-president; Marlene Blice, secretary and Anastasia Vanasky, treasurer.

Row 1—C. Martin, D. Gaydos, President; M. Blice, secretary; A. Vanasky, treasurer; D. Vecchione, P. Wiseman, M. Polazzo, J. Fraile.
Row 2—T. Lopresta, A. Lettera, E. Rossi, M. Garasky, B. Doxie, C. Protopapa, M. Coutris, Miss Christy, advisor.
Row 3—J. Petretic, P. Quint, A. Porcase.



Row 1—J. Cholenshy, B. Sundin, B. Molson, C. Hinton, R. Ritz, J. Milano, D. Lewis.
Row 2—G. Dechant, T. Napoli, D. DeMarte, V. Serra, F. Muscatello, R. Rushwin.
Row 3—C. Goricki, D. Pride, W. Harris, D. Merwin, D. Woodward, A. Yukerus, D. Smith.
Row 4—J. Bulah, E. Lundy, B. Leet, W. Evans, D. Bozik, P. Acitelli, R. Gol.

ELECTRONS

"Is it oxidized or reduced?"

This was one of many questions determined through actual experimentation by the Electrons, who met each Friday morning at 8:00. The feature of the year was the annual Science Fair, presented for the benefit of those students interested in the scientific field.

Row 1—Pompelli, McGrath, O'Neil, Ashley, Ferranti, Cervello, Carmendy, Capple, Miller, Kettering, Timlin, Gaydos.

Row 2—Gardner, Protopapa, Naples, Vanasky, Whiteside, Brocious, Macri, Whiteman, Green, Terlecki, Marks, Specht, Lewis.

Row 3—Martin, DeCarlo, Anzelmo, Doxie, Testa, Vanasky, Whiteside, Quint, Vecchione, Laterra, Evans, Oliver, Mims, Ruggeri.

Row 4—Guerrieri, Fitzpatrick, Howie, Douglas, Douglas.

Row 5—Porcase, Petretic, Cicchi, Evans, Maze, Mortellaro, Miller, Lucas, Harvey, Perry, Shook, Blice, Malagisi, Leshnak, Garasky, Crook, Miller, Tondi, Keyes, Evans, Beulah.

Participating in Civic Day, the Easter assembly, and having a variety of speakers and club discussions, provided activities and projects for Tri-Hi-Y, a service club sponsored by the Y.M.C.A.

Officers this year were: Delores Gaydos, president; Bernie Mastropietro, secretary and Maureen Timlin, treasurer.

JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT

Row 1—B. Doxie, Harrison, J. LoCicero, V. Serra, C. Fanton, D. DeMarte, J. Borda, B. Molson, Ramos, Tomacik.

Row 2—P. Brown, G. Baganier, W. Murphy, P. Barnes, W. Tommy, D. Lewis, B. Leet, D. Williams, O. Foster.

Row 3—D. Pride, R. Etri, M. Galluppi, M. Magury, C. Goricki, P. Wiseman, P. Vanasky, R. Zerm, C. Sturdevant, J. Hanak, M. Nalipa, M. Mortellaro, B. Muscatello, P. Cononico, B. Nelson.

J.A., being a nationwide organization, helps young people of the U.S.A. to learn the hard fundamentals of business.

Operating small scale enterprises, planning, selling and broadcasting a half-hour radio publicity program, were some of the educational projects and activities in which members of Junior Achievement participated.

HI-Y

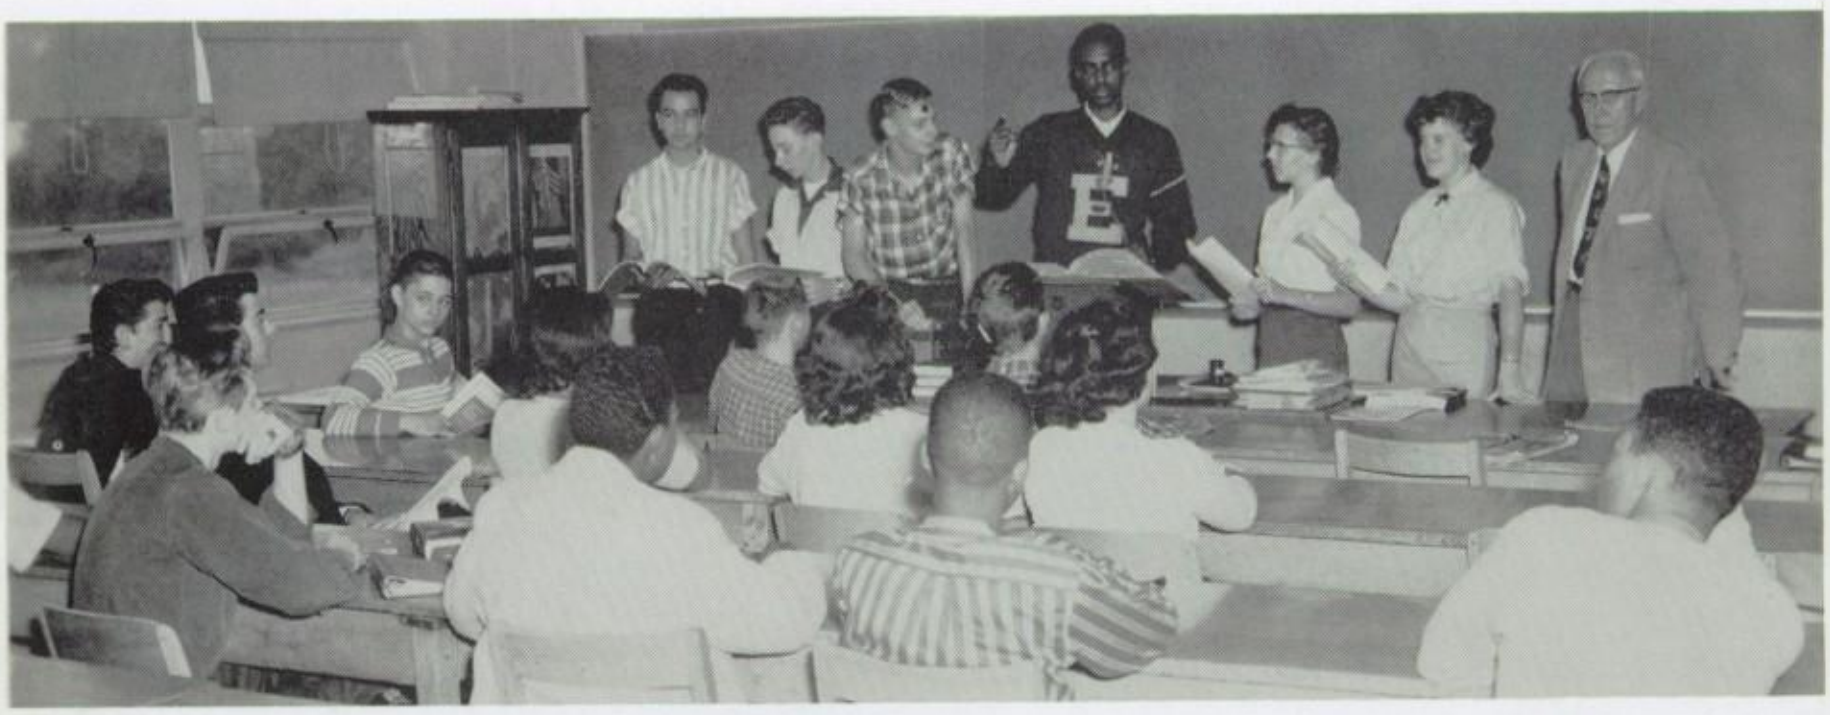
Row 2—R. House, A. Yorkunas, R. DeChalk, B. Sundin, D. Little, J. Holmen, treasurer; L. Wilson, B. Moore, L. Ladd, L. Rivello, advisor.
Row 3—S. Freeman, R. Tringhese, E. Rubicky, C. Colucci.
Row 4—R. Gol, J. Stroble, F. DeMaine, C. Hinton, A. Leone, C. DeVito, P. Barnes, L. Nail, P. Veccharelli.

"Let's forget the meeting and go swimming," were the oft heard shouts of the HI-Y boys when they met bi-weekly at the Y.M.C.A.

Thanks to the perseverance of the officers, swimming was delayed long enough for the club to sponsor a sox hop, plan a hay ride, participate in civic day activities and enter two basketball teams in the Hi-Y league.

RADIO-T.V.

During the past school year, the Radio Speech Class headed by L. Morris, took over the morning devotions and announcements for the first time. Duties were distributed among the members of the class, and they each took turns reading devotions and making announcements.



Row 1—Ramos, Tomocik, Fanton, Pride, Sturdevant, Schaeffer, Morris.
Row 2—Sinko, Weaver, Kish.
Row 3—Bruno, LaPresta, Armstead, Toffler, Moss.

Row 4—Lewis, Boyd, Blice, Baltes, Doxie, Specht, Evans, Quint, Naples, Hammond, Galuppi.
Row 5—O'Neil, Frankovich, Protopapa, Harasym, DeSanto, Bell, Leshnack, Beaulah, Terlecki, Keyes, Campbell, Sanarelli, Gol, Francisco.
Row 6—Harvey, Pompelli, Monico, Lovati, Carter, Crippa, Angelo, Adams, Molson, Vickers, Ross.
Row 7—DeGeorge, Laterra, Prucnal, Peel, Shaley, Miller.
Row 8—Gaia, Maytos, Nail, Fantone, Little, Pride.

"Stop needlin' me," cried Joe LoCicero to our pine needled Christmas tree, as he and a half dozen Varsity "E" members decorated said tree in accordance with annual tradition.

Under advice of Miss J. Clarke, members fulfilled their duties of backing all school activities. They also gave baskets of food and money at both Thanksgiving and Christmas, and sponsored a sox hop in April.

PRESIDENT'S COUNCIL

Giving up their lunch periods and meeting in the comfort of the second floor living room, President's Council, in addition to backing all school activities, filled Red Cross boxes and donated to the Pavillion Fund, as part of their own projects.

Row 1—J. Petretic, P. Quint, J. Tamburrini, J. Kopinsky, D. Vecchione.
Row 2—J. LoCicero, C. Hinton, E. Ross, D. Gaydos, M. Blice, A. DePietro.
Row 3—W. Rogers, D. Little, N. Terlecki

JANUS STAFF

About 16½ seniors, the ½ due to a half-witted editor, spent 45 minutes a day supervising photography, identifying returned photos, and writing copy for the Janus. The theme "Thanks for the Memory" was developed under the astute guidance of Janet Petretic, editor, and Nina Yakotich, her assistant.

Row 1—P. Carmendy, B. Capple, J. Carano, J. Petretic-Editor, L. Cervello.

Row 4—J. Hunter, B. Constantine, G. Clark.
Not Pictured—Nina Yakotich, Assistant Editor, Ray Perry.

ECHO

Eager Echo newshounds gleaned the school for material to fill the nine issues printed this season. The staff led by Paula Quint and Marlene Blice, captured a second place award at Pitt University's Clinic. Another second place award was won at the Kent State newspaper clinic for editorials submitted in the School Improvement category.

Row 5—A. Yorkunos, D. Pride, B. Santor, N. Mortalaro, A. Napoli, D. Lewis, D. Boycik, A. Mancino, J. Cholensky, W. Harris.

Brains n' brawn sparked this year's National Honor Society, led by diminutive Donna Vecchione. Along with advisor, Miss Alice Weber, John "muscles" Hunter, vice-president; "tired" Paula Quint, secretary; and "quiet" George Clark, treasurer, formulated plans for a "Coins for Care" service project, a Sox Hop in the gym, and a trip to Washington, D.C. and New York.

Marlene Blice at Gettysburg

Under the motto, "This We Believe", students and faculty who have contributed to Freedom's Foundation have brought great honor and acclaim to our school by winning seven consecutive coveted awards.

East is the only school in this area credited with representation at Valley Forge.

The great desire to project the "American Way of Life" as shown here, prompted interested students headed by Miss Alice Weber to participate in various Freedom's Foundation activities.

After writing an ordinance, required attendance at three preparatory and one mass meeting, eligible Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y members participated in Civic Day on March 10.

Spending the morning with their sponsors in various industrial, political, and service occupations, they had the opportunity to see the inter-workings of these organizations.

A luncheon, with Dr. Carl C. Bracy, president of Mount Union College as guest speaker, and a mock city council meeting ended the day.

SEVENTH AND EIGHT GRADE CHOIR

Row 1—Mr. Campbell, D. Hensley, R. Parm, B. DelFranio, J. O'Block, K. Ritz, V. Nolfi, R. Shaff, C. Hull, M. Testa, P. Gardane.

Row 2—D. Barbato, L. Macchio, A. Mocre, G. Taylor, M. Brown, P. Yannarella, E. Peel, M. Sylvester, C. Marstellar, H. Gaydos, R. Scocca.

Row 3—P. Brown, A. Armstead, D. Jackson, J. Taylor, J. Rose, E. Dodson, M. Strozier, S. Austin, L. Whatley, R. Ruggieri, M. Richardson, E. Shelton.

Row 4—N. Wiscott, J. Gol, L. Bell, L. Arguilla, J. Snowden, M. Thomas, B. Winstead, S. Wheeler, L. Johnson, R. Harrison, J. Smith, D. Mazzella, D. Dilisio.

Considering that this was their debutante year under the direction of Richard A. Campbell, these song birds enthusiastically went all out performing in Christmas, Thanksgiving, Easter, and several other assembly programs.

COSMETOLOGY

Whether it was just a wash and set, a cut, a permanent or a tint, the job was always done well by these six girls.

After completing a two year course at Choffin Vocational School and passing their State Board Examination, they were awarded their beautician licenses.

Seated: Phyllis Monico, June Scali.

TIN SHOP

It was "snip, snip, bang, bang," when supervisor, Oscar Carlson, got apprentice tin snipers under way teaching them the fundamentals of metalwork. Here they made ash trays, hammar heads, funnels and did repairs for teachers.

Hesoleti, Silva, Jefferson, Jones, Williams, Fitzpatrick, Grapes, Hetmanski.

AUTO SHOP

Washing and waxing cars were in every day occurrence in auto shop. Removing pistons, transmissions, valves, etc. . . . and putting them back, were some of the things you would have learned, had you been an apprentice grease monkey in auto shop the past year.

Wanamaker, Esposito, Kelty, Strobel, Ambrosia, Mr. Checkeroski, Battaglia.

WOOD SHOP

During the past year, under the fine supervision of J. McDougall, apprentices learned the fundamentals of cabinet making, and in so doing, learned to make such projects as coffee tables, end tables, chairs etc. to be used in their homes.

R. Janosov, J. Ditman, B. Moore, S. Flores, F. Bartholmew, J. De Saito, F. Donnadio.

ELECTRIC SHOP

In repairing small appliances, such as lamps, irons and radios, students of Gus Hlebovy's electric shop learned the fundamentals of electricity while doing useful and practical jobs. Studying house wiring and operation of larger appliances, as well as doing work in plastics, making candy dishes and other useful containers, rounded out the course.

Left to right—G. Hlebovy, D. Durda, F. Pazel, B. Smith, A. Baungartner.

Row 1—Berduce, Policy, Gaudio, Campznezzi.
Row 2—Grazyuana, Hlay, Rivalsky, Alligratto, DeAmico, Lattanizo.
Row 3—Doeppinta, Musolino, Hernick.

CUSTODIANS

"Whistle while you work!" That was the tune of head janitor John Policy and his crew of three men, ten women, and four boys as they spent many long hours making general repairs, cleaning classrooms and hallways, taking care of the school grounds, and doing many other necessary duties.

CAFETERIA WORKERS

Familiar scene in the lunchroom fourth and fifth periods—nine busy cafeteria workers serving a nutritious noon lunch to approximately 300 students every day.

Seeing that the menu was planned as scheduled was the job of Mrs. L. Keefer, manager, and Mrs. P. Conti, assistant.

E. McKallip, B. Floyd, M. Manfredi, A. Manna, L. Keefer, A. Lettera, H. Lodwick, P. Conti.

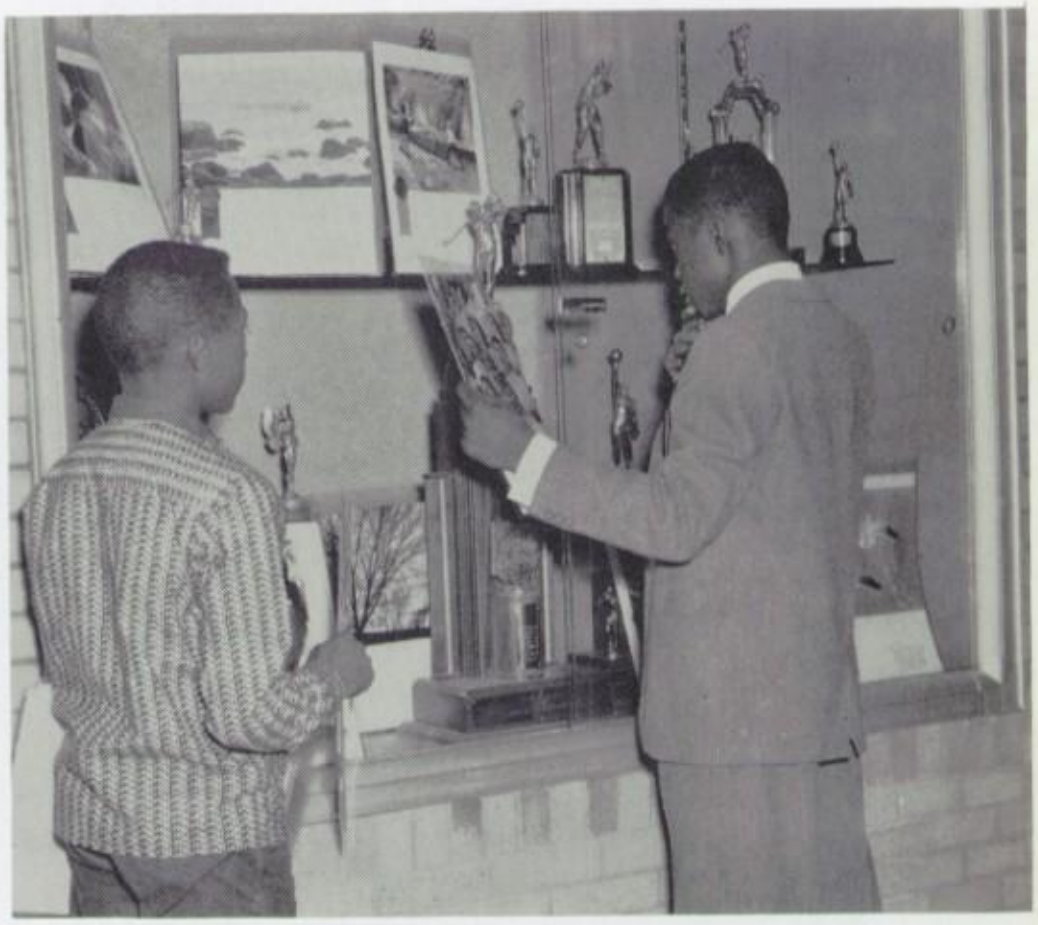
Clarence Martens, Laverne Ozenghar, Judy Noel, Dorthea Carter.

CAFETERIA HELPERS

Collecting and emptying trays, washing dishes, selling hamburgers, and keeping tables clean were the duties that kept cafeteria helpers active every day, fourth and fifth periods.

TROPHY CASE

Among the other sixty-five trophies, those newly and proudly displayed this year were the Father Gallagher and the Rotary Club ones, presented to East for winning the 1958 football championship.



1. Richard Lott 2. Robert Curry

C. Protopapa, P. Quint.

FOOTBALL TICKET SELLERS

Good attendance at games during the pigskin season could be attributed to one thing only, Clara Protopapa's and Paula Quint's convincing sales tactics. Not many escaped them every Thursday and Friday during lunch periods at their little table in the main lobby.

CUSTODIAN HELPERS

It probably was rough to get up every morning during th summer, and every cold, brisk morn last winter — but when it meant work and 'money', these four boys were persistent and persevering.

MR. CAMPBELL

Row 1—J. Guerrieri, C. Kegley, C. Quantro, R. Ritz, S. Ortman, V. Gorden, W. Evans, M. L. Bardos, A. M. DeLucia.

Row 2—S. Grant, C. Maize, M. A. Mortellaro, S. Morelli, D. Marks, A. Hieni, A. Rorick, M. J. Gullippe, P. Specht, M. Blice, M. Westcott.

Row 3—S. Shaley, N. Sheppard, J. Popio, H. Robins, R. Galloway, H. Tribble, J. Brown, S. DuBose, B. Nelson, J. Emilo, G. Baltes.

Row 4—R. Hammand, F. Polofka, W. Hamilton, T. LaPresta, J. Snowden, D. Little, S. Freeman, W. Inman, H. Queener, G. Bardinear, R. Gol, D. Bozick, C. M. Bankston, S. Henry.

Like music? These fifty-four song-minded juniors and seniors certainly did. Under the direction of Richard Campbell, A cappella members participated in many musical assemblies, a special Christmas pageant, carolled at Lincoln Knolls Plaza, appeared at Wilson High, and successfully presented their operetta, Roaring Camp.

JR. CHOIR

Row 1—D. Williams, T. Sylvestri, C. Scott, P. Stringfellow, R. Conti, G. Jacobs, D. D'Andrea, C. Wise, D. Williams, P. Peterson, B. Washington.

Row 2—R. Campbell, M. Morrison, D. Gallaugher, C. Baker, M. Lewis, B. Hale, J. Rogers, J. Rushbacky, R. Curtis, C. Cousins, L. Bryant, E. Howell, P. Harris.

Row 3—A. Savich, E. Stevenson, L. Economakis, V. Clark, J. Heiser, D. Hooks, M. Boyd, R. D'Alesio, M. Coutris, J. Priley, B. Pierson, J. Pesa, L. Clark, V. Culbertson.

Row 4—R. Durkin, R. Moses, J. Tavolario, G. Ritz, E. Lovati, R. Wilding, R. Sylvester, W. Rogers, A. Conti, E. Long, J. Gibson, F. Ellerbe, L. Brooks, C. Bell, E. Marshall.

After one year of mixed choir, under the direction of Richard A. Campbell, sophomores become eligible for A Cappella choir in their junior and senior years.

Included in the activities in which this group participated were the Christmas Play, the operetta, Roaring Camp, and several assemblies.

OPERETTA

Row 1—McQueen, Gardon, Palofka, Freeman, Little, Wilding, Tavolario, Brown.
Row 2—Evans, Martellaro, Marks, Kegley, Scott, LaPresta, Guerrieri, DuBose, Galloway, Nelson, Robbins, Nail, Gilyard, Queener, Taylor.
Row 3—Henry, Gal, Popio, Emilo, Snowden, Hamilton, Bankston, Irby, Maze, Rorick,

Because of an excess of man power in A Cappella this year, Roaring Camp, an operetta depicting life during the '49 gold rush, seemed especially appropriate since it called for an almost male cast.

The operetta centered around Boston Waggoner, the hero, who set out to find gold, but discovered Elvira Brigham.

The cast included: Boston Waggoner, Tom Lopresta; Elvira Brigham, Jeanne Guerrieri; Mr. Slakey, Frank Polofka; Kaintuck, Douglas Little; Oakhurst, Harvey Robbins; Stumpy, Sam Freeman; French Pete, James Tavalario; Man O'War Jack, Ray Wilding; and Kanaka Joe, James Snowden.

ORCHESTRA

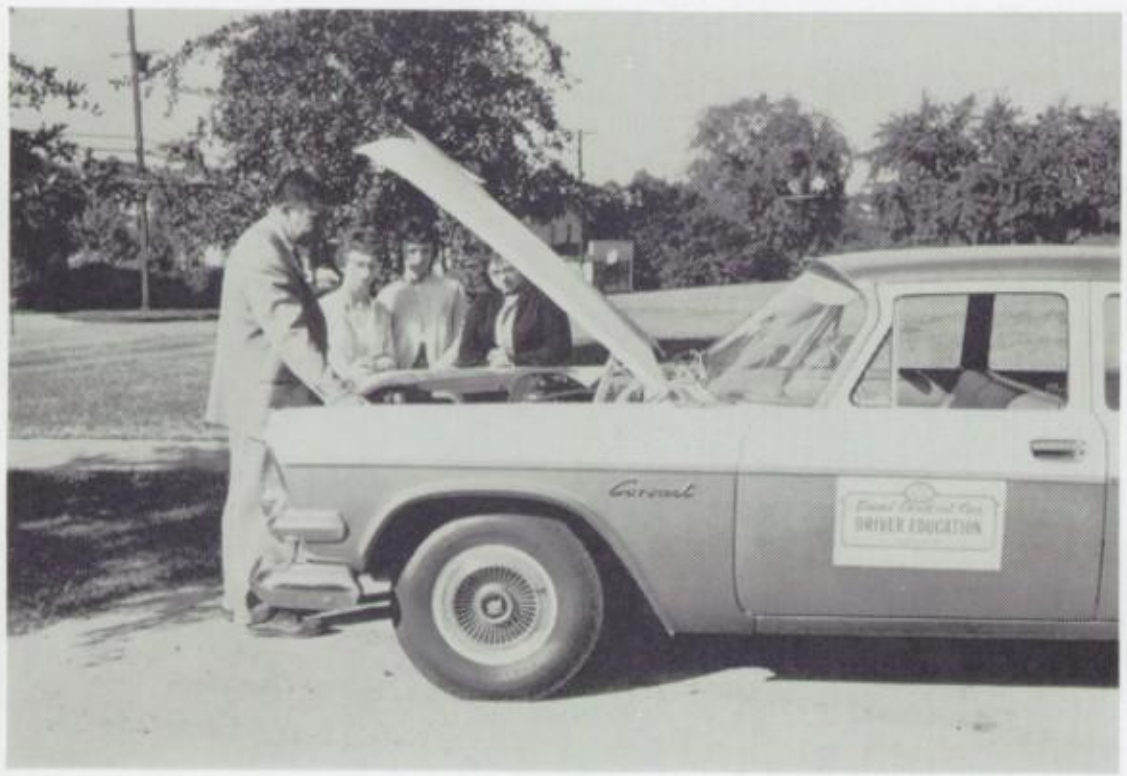
Row 1—Newmark, Carney, Sandy, Snipes, Taylor, Wilkerson, Blice, Vizi, Hinton, Cholensky, McWilliams, Hinton.
Row 2—Miller, Hanak, Kish, Receland, Howie, Emilo, Zupko, Nemes, Bornemisza.
Row 3—Raz, Testa, Elliot, Inmax, Morelli, Strollo, Kendall, Houckin, Strickland.

Practicing diligently everyday for weeks in preparation for the Spring Music Festival was an important part of the orchestra's curriculum. Under the direction of John Raz, they also played for various assemblies and Baccalaureate.

FRESHMAN CHOIR

Row 1—Diyorio, Smith, Shaffer, Lucas, Lewis, Marks, Daniels, Rivers, Phem, Babyak, Perline, Civarelli, Penn.
Row 2—Dugan, Mathews, Hudson, Amicone, Muscatello, Hanni, Hanak, Goler, Caturo, Rivers, Redman, Perline, Massey, Saadey.
Row 3—Harris, Protein, Regula, Borda, Morrow, Detoro, Tavalario, O'Hara, Dubecky, Wilkes, Scarpine, Teet, Merwin, Hessman.
Row 4—Revish, Jones, Howie, Moore, Queener, Thomas, Love, Shearer, Greer, Davis, Barone, Prichard, Jones.

Under the direction of J. E. Penn, 70 members of the ninth grade choir participated in three assemblies, performed at Kimmel Brook Community Center, and collaborated with the band in their Spring Musical.



J. Bernard, D. Brocious, J. Muzinski, J. Vaina.

DRIVING

Trying to learn to drive may have become discouraging at times to 130 juniors and seniors, but under the direction of Joseph Bernard, those who struggled through had a greater chance of becoming qualified drivers.

ART CLASS

Silversmithing, sculptor, enameling, ceramics, designing, painting, graphic and fine arts is the work of our art students under the supervision of Mrs. Lynn Mocker, Robert Burke, and Louis Kish.

Arts and Crafts attempts to enrich students by cultural growth through active participation in the major art experiences.

Left to Right: A. Fusillo B. Bankston, A. Volpe, H. Woods, L. Thompson, G. Whitfield, R. Arquilla, R. Caruso.

Row 1—B. Thomas, R. Coman, E. Schaffer.
Row 2—G. Whitfield, B. Diana, R. Coman.
Row 3—G. Hilton.

MECHANICAL DRAWING

Making up charts, tracing blueprints, constructing machine drawings, and trying to teach the boys how to draw a straight line were only a few of the headaches G. Birch undertook this year in mechanical drawing.

Row 1—Sitting—C. Crippa, W. Young, J. Merwin.
Row 2—Standing—B. Davis, S. Shook, M. DeBoles, J. Fraile, D. Vrabac, C. Hoehnle, J. P. Griffith, N. Wilkins.

MR. GRIFFITH'S HELPERS

Familiar requests of "Locate this boy, answer the telephone, file these, and type this," were given by J. P. Griffith, dean of boys, to ten student helpers who assisted him five periods each day.

OFFICE HELPERS

A school as large as East has scads of clerical work. To speed up these tasks in the office were eight office helpers who typed, filed, answered phones, and took over classes in emergencies.

By so doing, they gained additional experience for the future in secretarial work.

Left to Right:

Row 1—S. Shook, R. Cierella, J. Harris.
Row 2—S. Morelli, V. Simon, D. Vrabac, S. Woodworth, J. Pompelli, A. Wilkes.

CLINIC HELPERS

If they had a headache, stomach-ache, or were just feeling low, our clinic is where they'd go.

Each day, the girls, under the supervision of Miss V. Simon, our school nurse, worked hard at comforting patients, and filing records.

LIBRARIANS

Books, books, and more books—those needed for classroom work and those for reading enjoyment. Student librarians, under the supervision of Miss Mabel Christy, found helping in the library a joy when there were so many interesting books to suggest to their readers.

Row 1—J. Hosenger, O. Toreck, C. Jones, S. Bonaise, P. DeGeorge, C. Sturdevant, M. McGarvey, J. Price.
Row 2—M. Kettering, C. Hainoly, S. Crook.

D. Gaydos, B. Ciaverella, B. Davis, B. Carrigan, D. Williams.

MOVIE TICKET SELLERS

Eating hurriedly and giving up more than half their lunch period, ticket sellers opened the doors of the bookstore, set up tickets and money and awaited the bell—the signal for rushing students who wanted to be first in line for the movie.

MOVIE TICKET TAKERS

Under the direction of Joseph Spurio, these ten girls gave up half their lunch periods, to collect tickets for those attending the noon movie.

Row 1—D. Williams, B. Stevens, F. Moore, P. Harris.
Row 2—E. Perkins, E. Howell, M. DeBoles, M. Hatfield, S. Park, C. M. Bankston.

C. Hoehnle, D. DeSanto, R. Mims, P. Jefferson, C. Scott, D. Williams, C. Oliver, S. Woodworth, C. Kamrad.

GYM CLASS

Nothing—not even a bump on the head, nor a sore arm or sore leg dampened girls' enthusiasm to participate in gym class activities.

BOOK STORE HELPERS

Opening their door at 8:00 every morning, workers in the bookstore prepared for the on-rush of students purchasing their needed daily supplies.

Barbara Davis, Jerry Harris, Bonnie Carrigan, Barbara Ciavarella.

R. Smith, O. Tripplet, L. Burke, V. Nativio, C. Fanton, J. Lewis, J. Heine, J. Borda, B. Smith

MOVIE OPERATORS

Setting up stage scenery, running noon and classroom movies, and producing light and sound effects kept the projectionists, under the direction of Paul Miller, busy throughout the year.

TYPING CLASS

Accuracy plays an important part in typing. Everyone had the opportunity to work for a pin representing speed from 40 to 60 words a minute. Twenty-five percent received awards this year from Miss G. Clemens, Miss M. Porter, J. Spurio and J. Czuba.

Row 1—P. Adams, N. Terlecki T. Bell.
Row 2—R. Hetmanski, J. Angelo, M. Kish.
Row 3—M. Nalepa, Mr. Czuba.

Nancy Stopyra, Carol Baker, Georgia Bello, Marisa Silvestri, Eunice Toffler.

SEWING

From pin cushions to skirts and blouses; from basting to machine sewing—these girls added to their wardrobes, clothes made by their own hands.

Wishing to show off their garments, they invited their mothers to a tea party held by the home economics classes.

COOKING

"Cackle, cackle, ho ho, please turn to a frog on a log," chants one wary witch. No potion this sad hag might brew could ever match the magic of Miss B. Goodwin's Jr. High cookster's. Devising devious means to grab a man, these girls match and sharpen their calorie prone minds twice a week.

FRONT
Cecelia Quaranta, Martha Kettering, Jean Guerrieri, Phyllis Malagisi, JoAnn Galterio, Valerie Clark, Dian Brown, Mary Ross, Christine Peacock, Doris Hooks.

Row 4—Gaydos, Grasky, Ferranti, Mussolino, Sturdavant, Hoehnle, Emilo.

Each Friday afternoon after school, forty-five femme keglers met at Champion Alleys for an exciting bowling session. High averages were maintained by Martha Reveland, 150; Marlene Blice, 130; June Scali, 129; Pat Musolino, 122; and Joanne Emilo, 121.

Mrs. Virginia Martin and Mrs. Alice Archibald teamed up this year as advisors.

" Turning them into '58 City Champs."

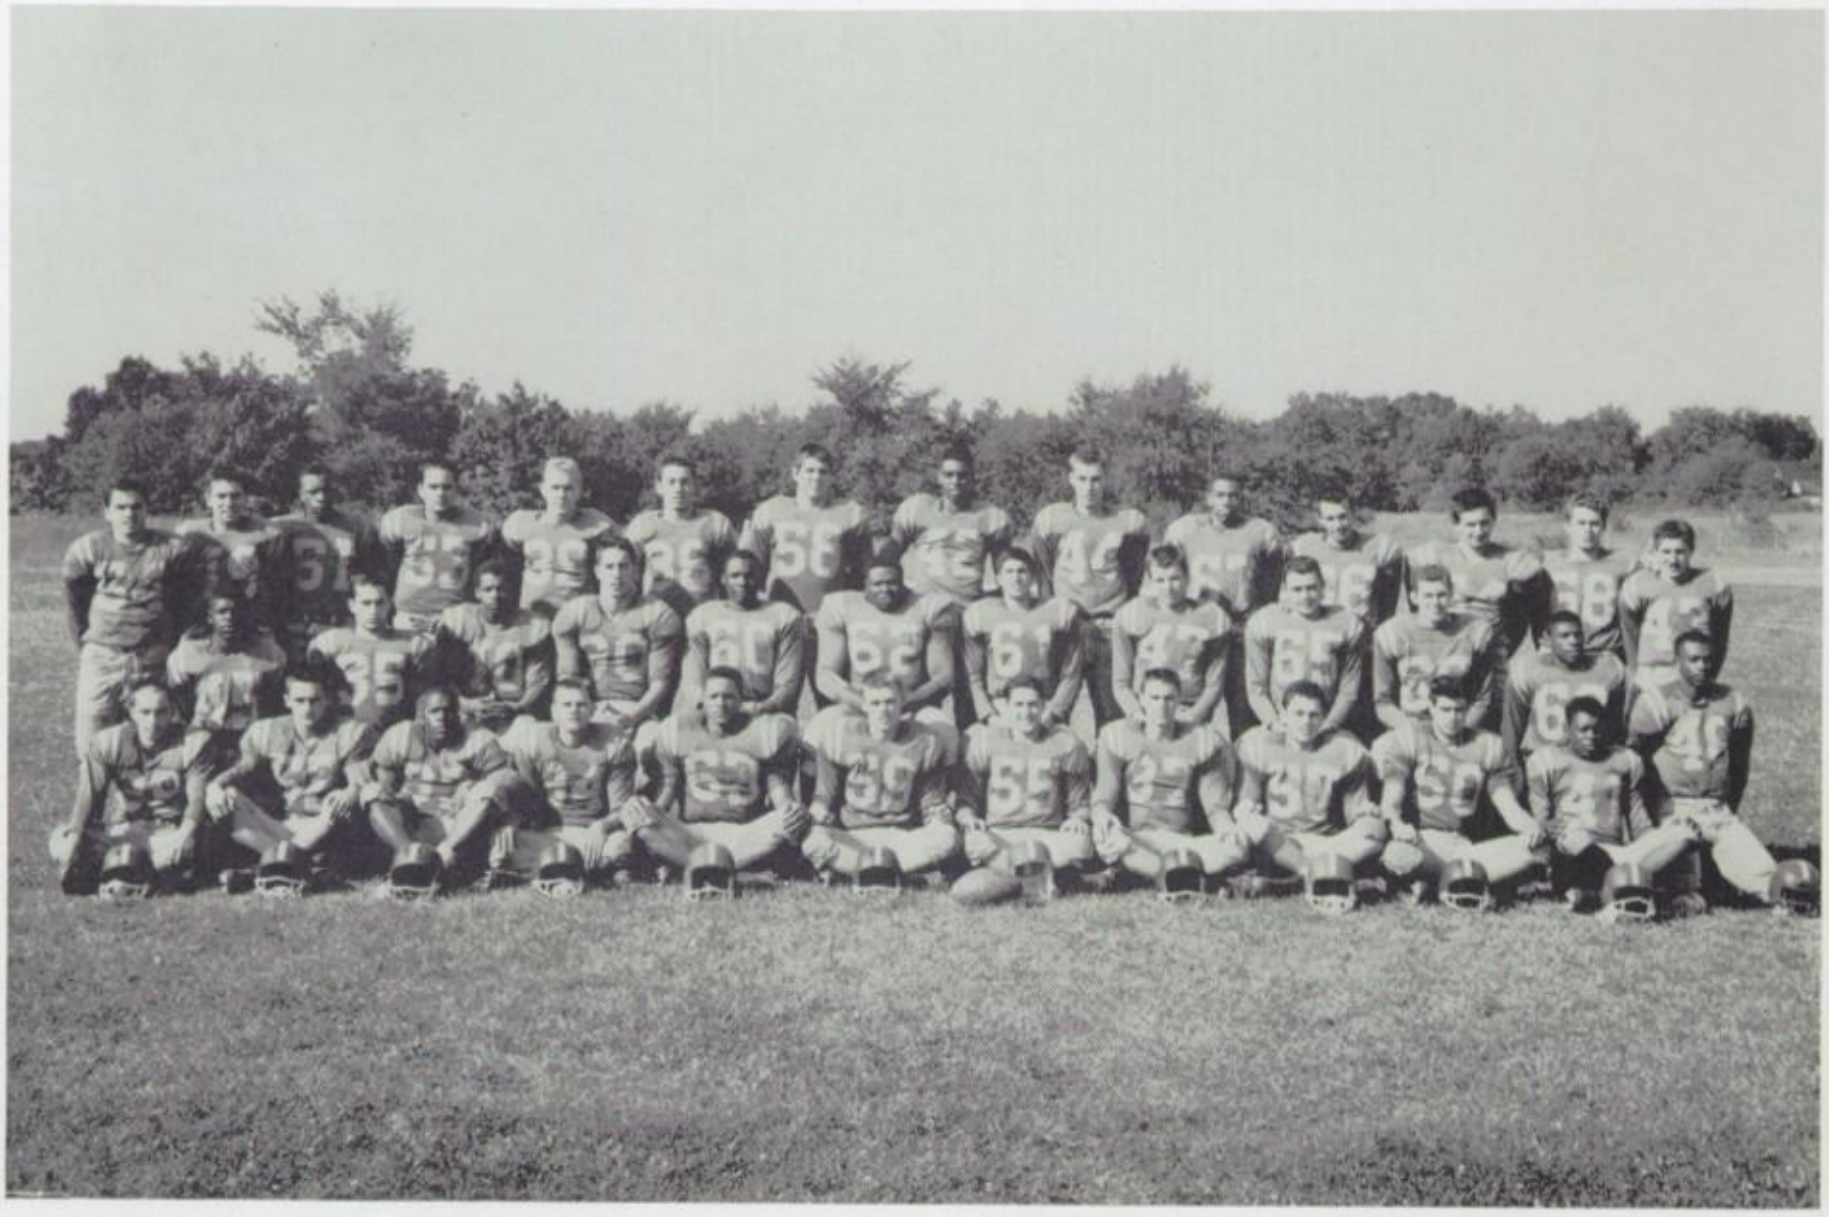
This was the task undertaken by Coach Pete Lanzi and his assistants. Working with the same team which had a one and eight record in '57, these coaches, through their tireless efforts and sacrifices of both time and energy, managed to capture the City Title with a 6-0 record in League competition. The overall record of 9-1 speaks for itself in the way our coaches handled the team.

FOOTBALL

Superstitious?——Not our team!

Joe DiPasqua wore the same shirt every Friday before the game, not because he was superstitious, but because he didn't have any other. Every week boarding the bus to go to the game—the players sat in the same seat, not because they had any faith in that old black magic, just mere force of habit. Despite the fact that the Bears weren't superstitious, they went on to achieve a nine-win-one loss record, winning all six of their City Series contests and capturing the City Title for the second time in four years.

At one time during the season, they were ranked a high seventh in the state by the A. P. Poll, and finished eighth. The squad this year was composed of seven seniors, twenty-four juniors and eight sophomores. Seniors who left this year are: B. Williams, J. Hunter, G. Clark, D. Canacci, A. DePietro, D. Guerrieri, and S. Freeman. The bulk of the first team will be returning next season.



Row 1—N. DePinto, G. Clark, A. Jackson, J. DiPasqua, J. Snowden, B. Boyd, A. DePietro, J. Hunter, R. Canacci, D. Lewis, K. Curry.

JUNIOR HIGH FOOTBALL

After thirteen straight wins, the Jr. High eleven, who this year changed their name to "The Rinky Dinks" . . . dropped the last tilt of the season, marring an otherwise perfect three year record. "Could be the change in name caused a change in luck," commented a philosophical spectator.

Ed DiGregorio assisted by Mike Yohman coached the junior gridmen to a six and one record for the season.

RESERVE CHEERLEADERS

Clapping hands, and whirling skirts were seen regularly when six Reserve cheerleaders, captained by Adeline Wilkes, cheered at all Reserve football and basketball games. All their spare time, during summer vacation and after school, was devoted to practicing.

Roberta Curtis, Helen Purnel, Mary Beth Ross, Dorthea Carter, Diane Shearer, Adeline Wilkes, Barb DeTata.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

Giving up the common urge to sleep late in July and August, six varsity cheerleaders rose early two mornings a week, ready to practice for their duties which included participation at all football and basketball games, and at all pep assemblies.

MAJORETTES

Hula Hoops! Hula Hoops! Everyone is doing the hula hoops!

The majorettes, in step with the craze of the nation, put aside their batons, and picked up hoops for two of the city series football games.

Performing at pep assemblies and during halftime at basketball games they added sparkle to those events.

Federal Street was the scene of two parades in which the girls participated, on Veterans' Day and on Memorial Day.

HOMECOMING

The main attraction of Homecoming and Dad's night on October 4th was the crowning of our lovely queen, Linda Cervello.

During half-time Linda walked through an arch of majorettes to the center of the field where Anglyn Porcase, head majorette, placed a crown of autumn leaves and flowers on her head. The queen and her attendants, Barbara DeTata, Clara Protopapa, Jean Tamburrini, and Anastasia Vanasky were presented with beautiful bouquets of yellow and white chrysanthemums. They then watched the remainder of the game from a blue and gold E-shaped platform on the fifty-yard line.

Before the beginning of the game, the rightfully proud fathers of all football players were introduced, and watched the Golden Bears score a 14 to 8 victory over Ursuline.

After the game, a dance followed at the Arco Club. At intermission, Dennis Martin accepted the "gold" trophy awarded Key Club for the best decorated car in the procession, and Janet Petretic, Editor of the Janus, presented the queen with a blue musical teddy bear in behalf of Janus Staff.

FOOTBALL MANAGERS

Douglas Little, George Ritz, Rocky Page.

"Bring me a towel," "Find my helmet," "Fix my jersey," "Find my shoes." These and many more demands echoed in the ears of these football managers.

Doug Little, George Ritz and Rocky Page were three busy lads as the varsity team kept them scampering. The boys cared for equipment and locker rooms, and performed other managerial tasks.

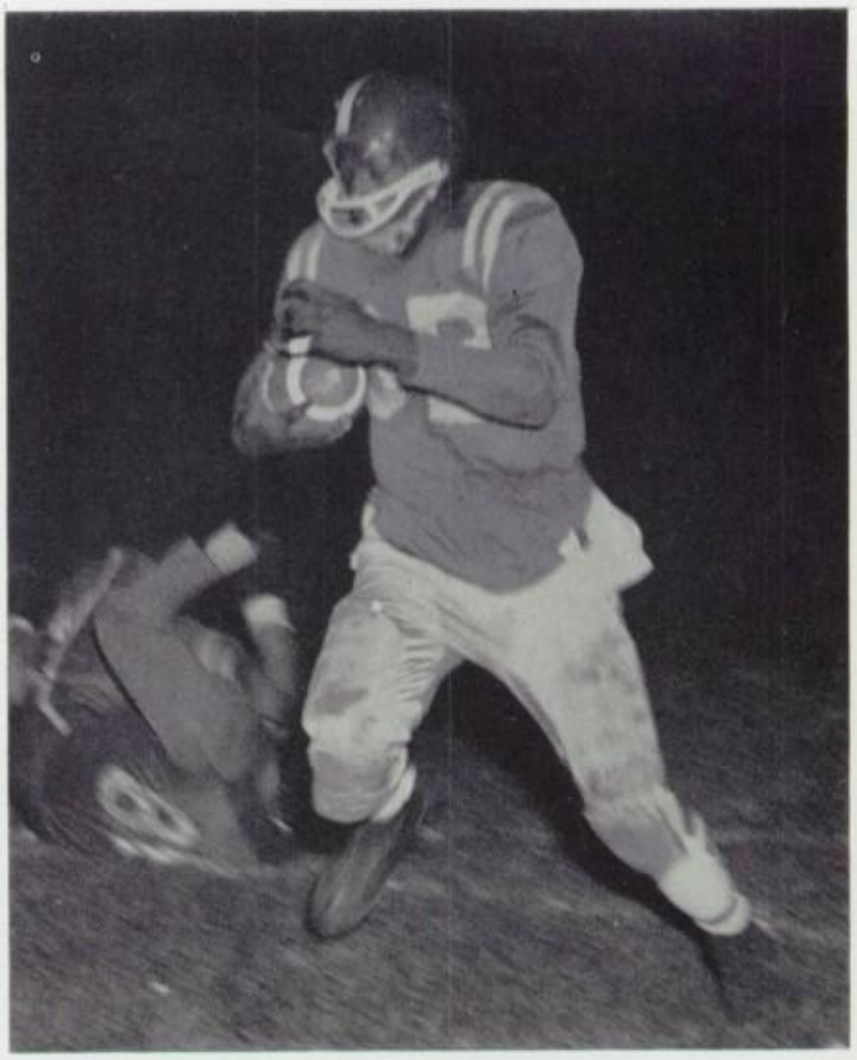
CY BARABAS

Athletic Manager

If the football and basketball tickets weren't sold on time, or if equipment wasn't all accounted for, the blame would have fallen on Cy Barabas, athletic director, who served his second year keeping the athletic department in order.



Jackson goes over from the five.

Row 3—Ed DeGregorio, Pete Lanzi, Cy Barabas.

This year's basketball squad, which completed the season with a commendable record of twelve wins and six losses, showed the result of Ed DiGregorio's resourceful coaching techniques. Despite a recurrence of ill health, Coach DiGregorio maintained long hours of gruelling work in an attempt to bring a championship basketball team to East.

With the loss of only two players through graduation, Coach DiGreg is looking forward to a banner year next season, when this year's juniors should reach their peak.

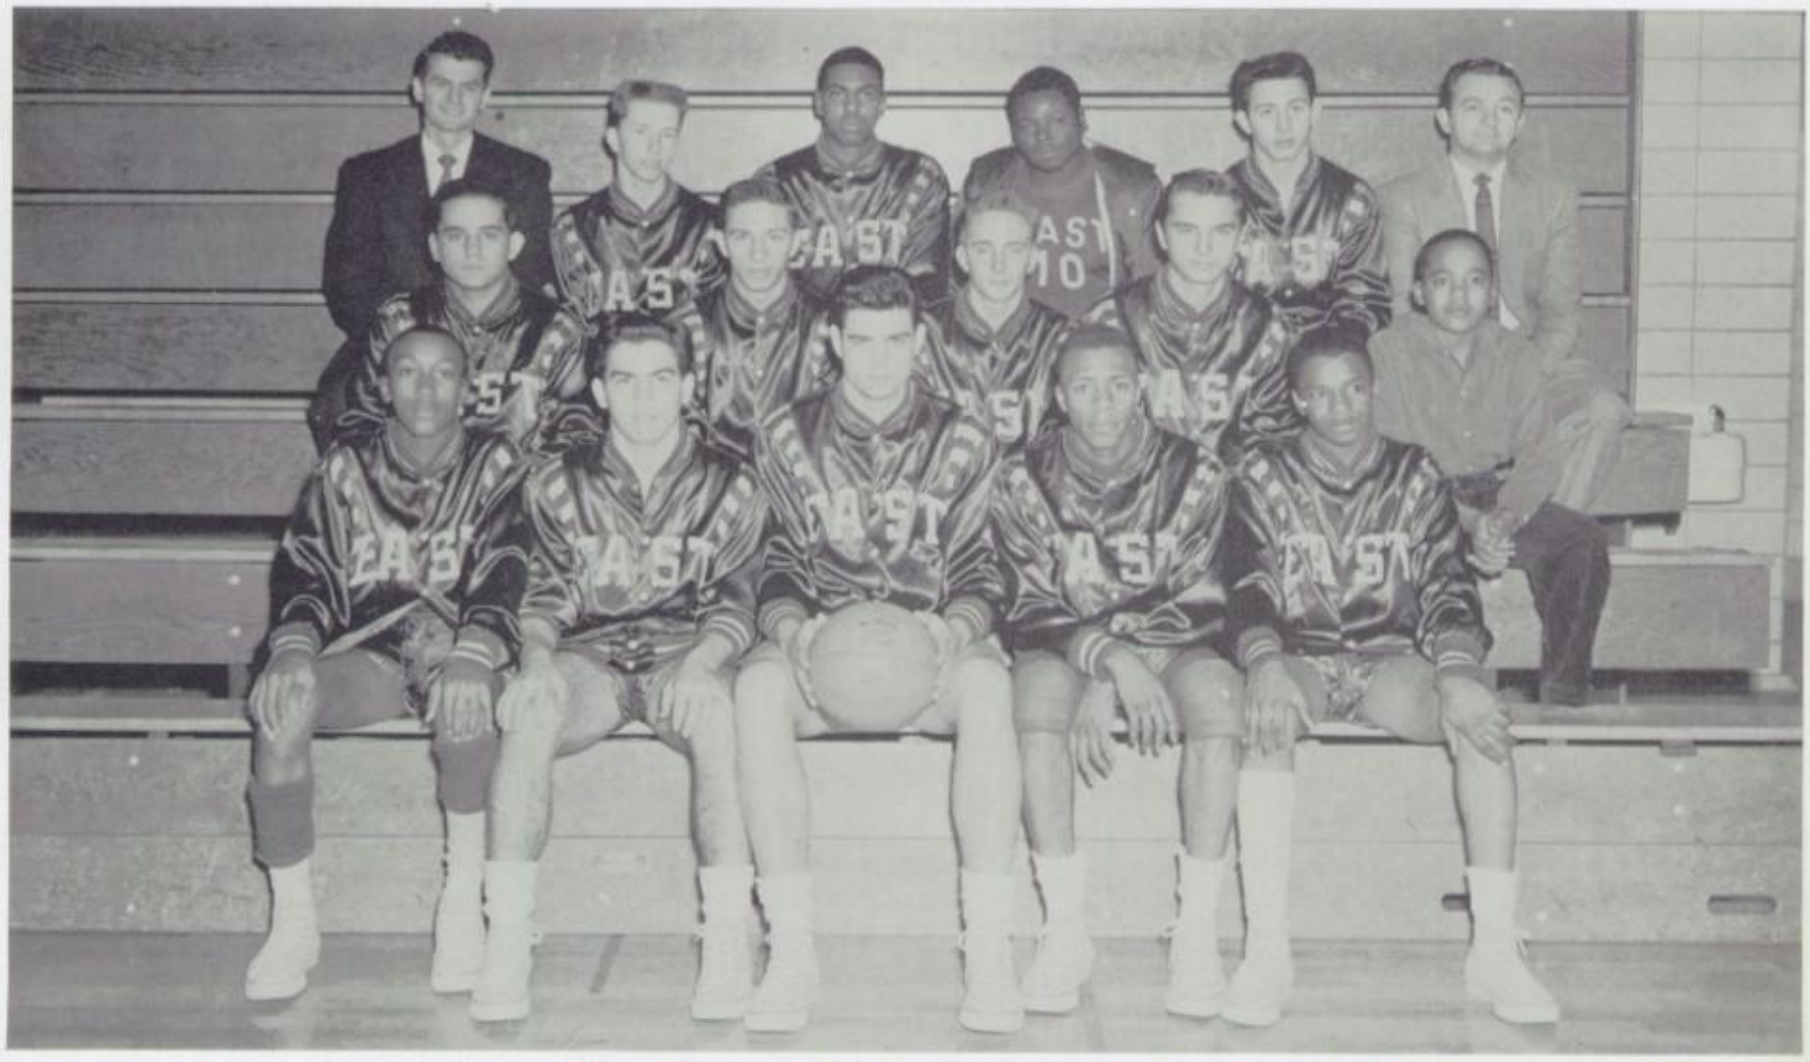
Best Wishes & Success Throughout Life. Coach DiGregorio

BASKETBALL COACHES

PETE LANZI ED DEGREGORIO LOU RIVELLO

This past '58-'59 season, guided by Ed DeGregorio, head coach, the Bears boasted a 8-13 record. Since Coach DeGregorio came to East in 1956, the team has undertaken a new look on the basketball court. Assisted by P. Lanzi, head football mentor and L. Revello, reserve basketball coach, DeGreg spent many hours in the gym preping the team in cage tactics and teaching them the new DeGregorio look.

RESERVE BASKETBALL



Row 1—Linnel Hayes, Dom DeMarte, Denny Lewis, Willie Rogers, Ed Burnes.

With the emphasis on gaining experience for forthcoming varsity years, Lou Rivello, reserve coach this year, did not stress winning every game. His theory was to give everyone an equal chance to gain knowledge on the basketball court, by substituting frequently, and clearing the bench on every occasion.

Compiling a six win—five loss record, the last five games of the season being all wins, proves that knowledge comes with experience.

JUNIOR HIGH BASKETBALL

Starting with almost a green team, coach Mike Lyden, showed the Junior High League what his basketeers could do.

With a 7-3 record, the Rinky Dinks tied for second place with North.

Row 1—T. Quaranta, R. Croft, Lytle, R. Caruso, B. Canacci.

For the first time in the history of the school, the Bears have organized a track and field squad to represent East in city series competition.

Under the able supervision of Coach Gus Hlebovy, the squad was developed into a fine potential for city series honors.

Hoping to improve on last year's season in which the Bears managed to capture only one win in a nine game schedule, Coach "Chippy" Flauto worked hard to field a winning team in the short time permitted by poor weather.

The '59 season opened with the Struthers Wildcats with four games before the opening of the Tournament.

ADVISORS

Attending committee meetings, answering questions, solving problems, getting in and out of dilemmas, chaperoning sox hops and proms, measuring for gowns, fighting senioritis, and worrying, worrying, worrying—that's the life of a senior advisor.

CLASS OFFICERS

Leading the Class of '59 through an enjoyable and memorable senior year were class officers: Armand DePietro, president; George Clark, vice-president; Clara Protopapa, secretary; and Doug Little, treasurer.

Working closely with their advisors, they organized class members into various committees necessary for planning such activities as Senior Sox Hop, Class Night, and Senior Prom.

C. Protopapa, G. Clark, A. DePieto, D. Little.

SOCIAL COMMITTEE

For the enjoyment of the Senior Class, as well as to raise additional funds, the social committee planned two sox hops and the senior banquet.

In planning the Senior Prom, the committee had the task of deciding upon the time, place, band, and numerous other details.

Row 1—C. Protopapa, P. Monico, D. Ashley, L. Cervello, co-chairman, B. Capple, A. Yakotich, A. Vanasky, M. Miller, P. O'Neill, M. Naples, N. Harasym, J. Petretic, N. Sheppard, R. Ritz, M. Perfetto, E. Fantone, S. DelPlato, P. Pompelli.

Row 3—P. Wiseman, P. Baxon, C. Davis, J. Guerrieri, A. Durkin.

Looking high, looking low is what the advertising committee did to help finance the cost of the greatest Janus ever, the "59".

SALES

Beginning early in October, each Sales Committee member devoted his homeroom periods to visiting homeroom extolling the merits of the Janus, and attempting to meet the Janus sales goal.

Row 1—P. Wiseman, M. Blice, M. Miller, M. Timlin, L. Cervello, P. Quint, D. Vecchione, B. Capple, J. Scali, J. Carano, P. Carmendy.
Row 2—S. Fisher, A. DePietro, J. Hunter, M. Maytos, G. Clark, D. Little, C. Ninton.

SENIOR PLAY CAST

Sitting: Marcia Miller, Margie Miller, Jean Tamburrini, Linda Cervello, Caroline Crippa, Jeanne Guerrieri, Beverly Nemes.

Standing: Mike Maytas, Sue Price, Millie Testa, Judy Mang, Rich DeChalk, Angelo Mancino, Leo Nail, Shirley DelPlato, Bernadine Mastropietro, Doug Little, Gary Rose, Joe Cruz, Bill Scheckelhoff.

In keeping with show business tradition that it is bad luck to peek through the curtains before show time, the twenty members of the cast anxiously awaited curtain time on April 2.

"Love Your Neighbor", a farce comedy, dealt with Tessy Vashki, a hometown girl engaged to Oswald Fredrick, a wealthy city boy.

Ozzy, his mother, Mrs. Fredrick, and his aunt, Agatha Bixby, are somewhat taken aback with the rusticity of the Vashki family when they arrive for the wedding rehearsal.

Tessy, on meeting Johnny Jones, who has started an apiary and candy business, falls in love with him.

Johnny's bees swarm and start a chain reaction which sets off one hilarious event after another.

The cast included:

Wingy Vashki, Angelo Mancino; Dora Vashki, Shirley DelPlato; Flora Vashki, Beverly Nemes; Emil Vashki, Leo Nail; Anna Vashki, Jeanne Guerrieri; Biddy Brady, Linda Cervello; Mrs. Jones, Caroline Crippa; Tessy Vashki, Bernie Mastropietro; Mrs. Bixby, Margie Miller; Luke Watson, Mike Maytas; Oswald Fredrick, Gary Rose; Johnny Jones, Richard DeChalk; Mrs. Fredrick, Marcia Miller; Maxey, Joe Cruz; Judge Patrick, Douglas Little; Grandma Vashki, Susan Price; Percival Ping, Bill Sheckelhoff; Sarabelle, Judy Mang; Zuvabelle, Millie Testa; and Dixie Jones, Jean Tamburrini.

On April 25th, at exactly 10:30 p.m., Stambaugh Auditorium was filled with applause and cheers, as the secret was finally revealed and Dan Woodward and Anastasia Vanasky were crowned king and queen at the Senior Prom.

Centered around a spring theme, the ballroom was adorned in flowers and candle light.

Al D'Orsi and his orchestra provided the music and helped set the springtime mood.

IN MEMORIAM

MISS NORMA WINTZER

With heartfelt regret, we mourned the passing of Norma Wintzer, who for thirty-two years, listened with patient ear and loving heart to the Latin ramblings of hundreds of pupils. Yet to each of "her people" she left a very personal memory of a most gracious and benign woman.

As is indeed proper, a suitable epitaph may best be written in Latin "in morte—vita; in death—life". For hers is that life which defies all of nature, eternal life.

WELL DONE, GRADUATE

Makes you feel pretty important, doesn't it? You've come through twelve rough years of books and report cards, detention periods and childish ways - - to find your future staring you smack in the face.

It's such an uncertain future - - filled with nuclear fission and speeds faster than sound . . . big frightening hassles in the U.N. and trips into outer space.

But the most important thing is that this future we're talking about is YOU! You'll make it or break it, keep the peace or fight the wars, harness the atom for good, or use it to kill and maim.

Through your college years, into your professions and the homes you will build . . . our best wishes go with you, Graduate we're depending on you!

"Sandy"

To one of the cutest and craziest girls I know.
Never forget all the good times we've had. Stay as sweet as you are and you'll go far. Best of Luck always.

To Sandy a wonderful girl with a wonderful personality. Much luck in your future years at East High.

Sandy ——

One of the cutest and nicest girl up East. May all of us "Officials" stay together throughout the coming years. Always remember the fun we had together. Don't forget to come to club either!

May God Bless you,
